01 | Introduction

It was born as just another villa. Today it is the only one, the favorite, La Favorita with 5 stars.

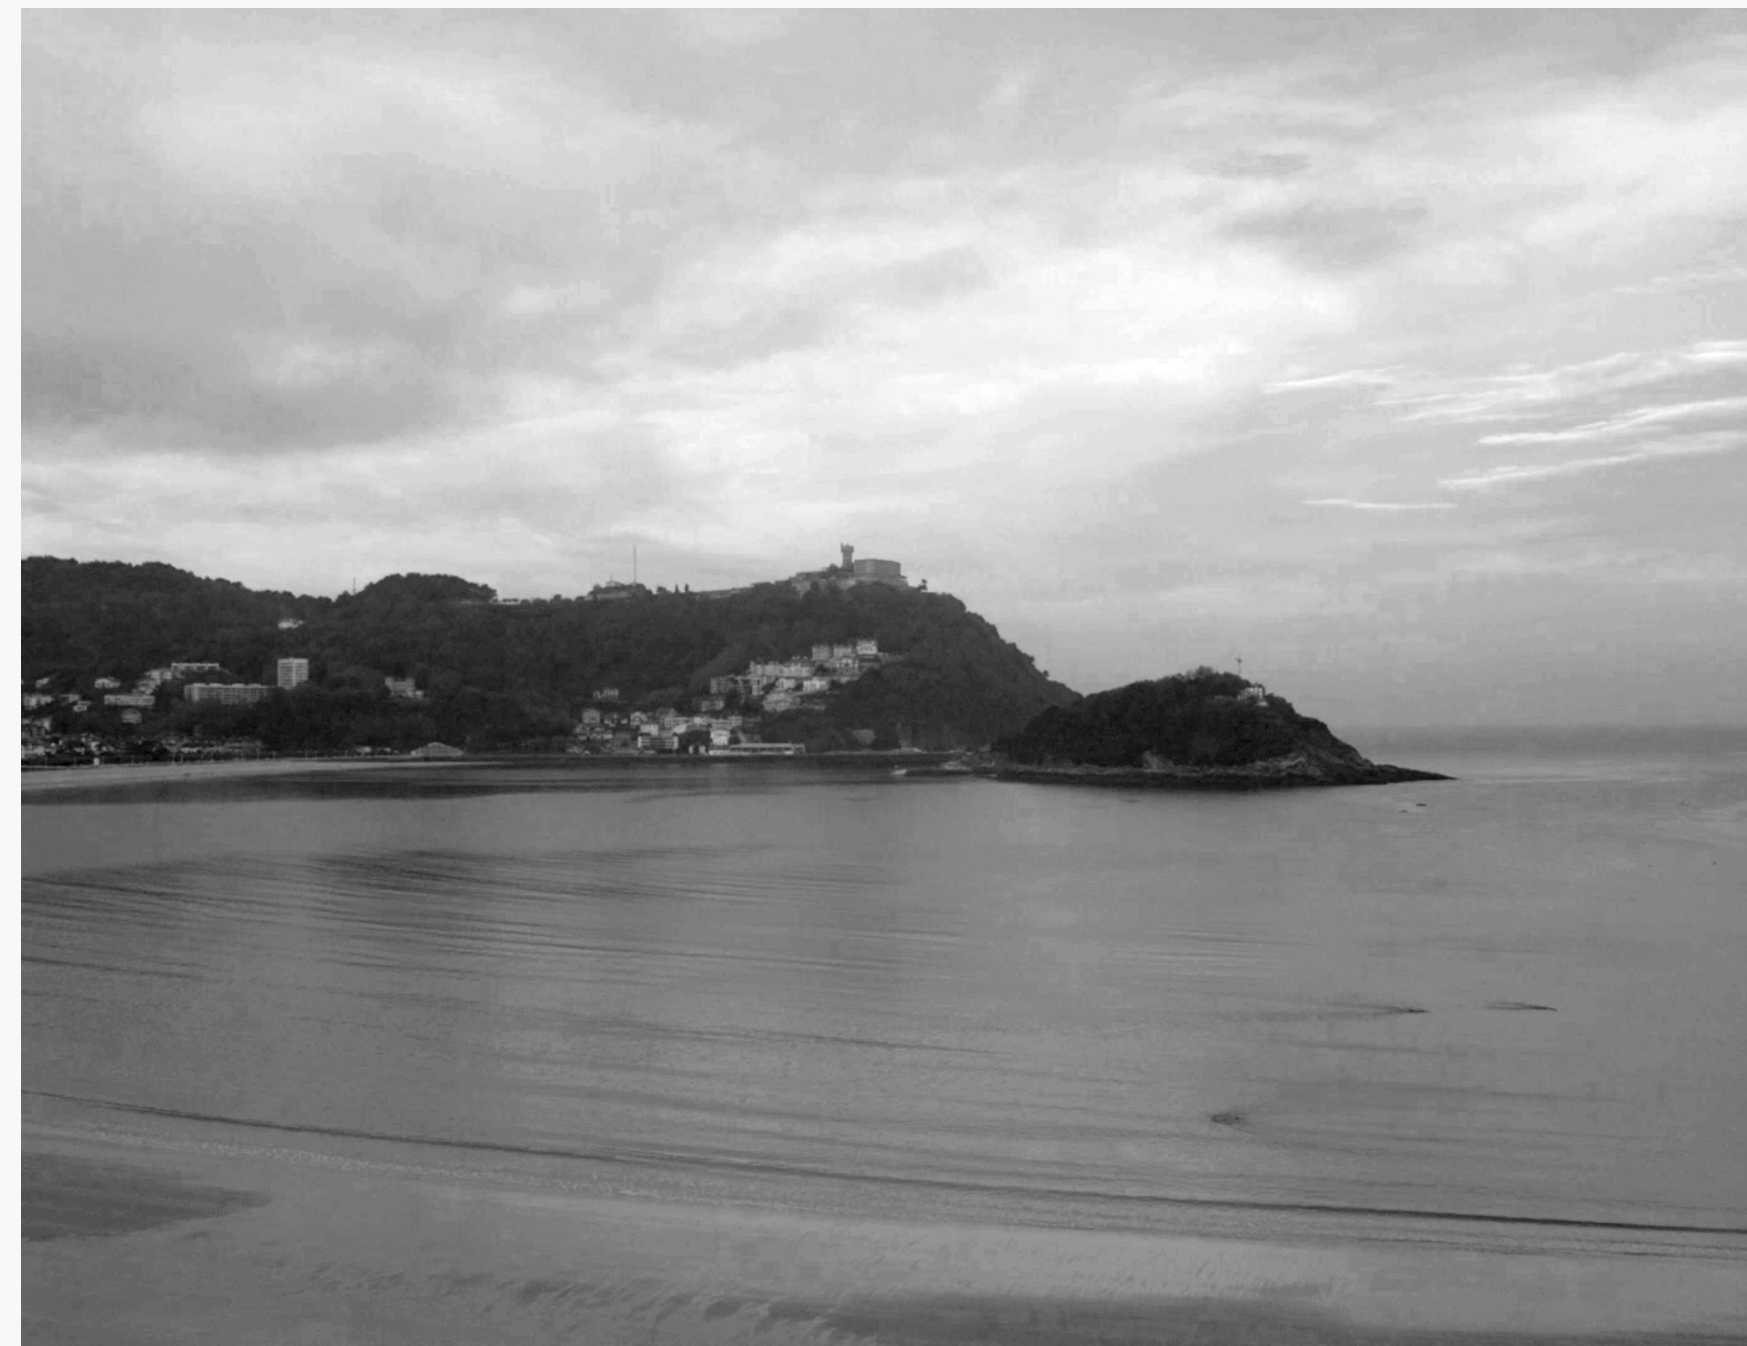

At the end of the 19th century, gradually and with the warmth of the court, La Concha Bay was surrounded with elegant villas of European style, like a diamond tiara. And time, one by one, also took them away. All of them, except one. The last villa in the bay. The last gem in the tiara. The most special one. La Favorita.

The last original villa on La Concha.

On one side of the window, one of the world's most beautiful seaside promenades: La Concha Beach in San Sebastian. On the other, the intimacy and charm of an original 19th century villa: a luxury boutique hotel. On the one side, life, light, the sea and the salty breeze. On the other, a two Michelin stars, a pleasant stay and a welcoming corner in which to enjoy the passing of time.

Welcome to Villa Favorita.
